MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

S.R.O. 210, dated 25th July 1959.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 and clause (5) of Article 148, of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following amendments in the Naval Dockyard Workmen's Provident Fund Rules, namely:—

In rule 17 of the said Rules

After Note 3 below clause (ii), the following new clauses and note shall be inserted, namely:—

- (iii) to meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by the subscriber for vindicating his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any act done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his official duty, the advance in this case being available in addition to any advance admissible for the purpose from any other Government source:

Provided that the advance under this sub-clause shall not be admissible to a subscriber who institutes legal proceedings in any court of law either in respect of any matter unconnected with his official duty or against Government in respect of any condition of service or penalty imposed on him;

- (iv) to meet the cost of his defence when he is prosecuted by Government in any court of law in respect of any alleged official misconduct on his part.

NOTE.—The advance to be sanctioned for the purpose of clause (iii) or (iv) shall not exceed three months' pay or Rs. 500 whichever is greater, and shall in no case exceed the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.
